

A large, stylized 'X' shape is formed by a collage of close-up photographs of brass die casting parts. The parts are highly detailed, showing various mechanical features like flanges, ports, and internal structures. The lighting is warm, highlighting the metallic texture and the precision of the manufacturing process. The 'X' shape is centered on a white background, with the collage filling the triangular sections of the 'X'.

DIEFLEX

Kunststoffschläuche